UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

REAL PROPERTY AND IMPROVEMENTS
LOCATED AT 28510 NAVARRO RIDGE ROAD,

Defendant.

No. CV 08-4550 SC

STIPULATION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND
POSSIBLE CLAIMANTS, PATRICK
FOURMY AND SUZY GRANZIERA

The United States and possible claimants, Patrick Fourmy and Suzy Granziera, agree, subject to the Court's approval, that the time for filing a claim be extended to and including April 30, 2009, with their answer to be filed within 20 days thereafter and the parties also agree that the Court reschedule the case management conference for a date after the claim and answer have been filed. Unless time is extended, the claim of Mr. Fourmy and Ms. Granziera is due to be filed on or before March 31, 2009. Mr. Fourmy and Ms Granziera previously requested two other extensions, the first from mid-January to February 11, and the second from February 11 to March 31, 2009.

1 The reason for the requested extension is that Mr. Fourmy and Ms. Granziera are trying to
2 decide whether to retain counsel or proceed on their own. Mr. Fourmy believes that he has an
3 attorney, David Nick, who will take the case whom he plans to speak to next week. The United
4 States is no objection to the 30-day extension, but is not inclined to agree to any future extensions.
5 Although retained counsel can help claimants navigate the labyrinth of applicable federal and local rules
6 procedural rules as well as substantive forfeiture law, the case must proceed at some point regardless of 7 whether claimants represent themselves or have retained counsel.
